EAST CONCORD

Mrs. Agnes Harriman of Dalton, N. H., was a week end guest of her sister, Mrs. D. M. Smith.

Veal Fisher was an over Sunday guest of her aunt, Minnie Briggs at Fitzdale.

Among the business visitors in St. Johnsbury Monday were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. White, Frank Warren, Irvin Smith, Mrs. D. M. Smith, Mrs. Eliza Graham.

Mrs. Estelle Meserve has finished work at the Fish House, Whitefield, N. H., and returned home.

Reginald Woodbury of Lunenburg was a Sunday guest at his aunt's, Mrs. Fred Whipple's leaving Monday for Springfield, Mass.

Thursday morning the sad news was received that Fred W. Smith had passed away in the early hours of the morning. Mr. Smith was taken sick Saturday but his condition was not considered dangerous at first but pneumonia developed and his heart was not strong enough to carry him through. He was a man who will be greatly missed in the town as well as the immediate vicinity. He was listed at the time of his death having been appointed at the March meeting but he had served six years previous which goes to show the confidence the town placed in him. He leaves to mourn his loss, one son, Ray of Springfield, Mass., who was unable to be here at the funeral and three granddaughters, one who made her home with him, little Marjorie, who will miss him very much, also a brother, Clarence Smith of South Lunenburg.

Mrs. Marian Morrill has been his housekeeper for the past ten or twelve years.

Mr. Smith was born in Concord, N. H., and has always made this town his home. The funeral was held from his home Saturday morning, Rev. Glenn W. Douglass of Lunenburg officiating. Rev. George Smith of Concord furnished music. There was an abundance of flowers. Interment was in Sunnyside cemetery. Among those called here from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carr, Mr. and Mrs. George Woods of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Katie Lavenie of Whitefield, N. H.

John Folsom was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury last week.

Rev. Glenn W. Douglass delivered an Easter sermon Sunday. He also received into the church a class of seven. Communion was also observed.

Ivan Hartsorn was elected First Lay Delegate and D. H. Thomas, second to the Methodist Episcopal conference to be held in Springfield the last of April.

Tom Christie and George Davis of Concord were in this place Monday with W. W. Adair, lumber to appraise the mill property, lumber and pulp wood here.

Dr. Stetson, veterinary of St. Johnsbury, was a professional visitor in this place Monday. L. A. Nichols lost a very nice cow, before Dr. Stetson arrived.

The Bragg & Bragg show drew good crowds each night it was here. Miss Lona Smith was the happy winner of the $5 gold piece, the prize given the most popular lady in town.

Mrs. Ida Fisher of Whitefield, N. H., visited her daughter, Mrs. Myron Parks, Monday.

Mrs. Will Sayers was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury, Friday.

Lilla Hastings of Fitzdale was a guest of Mrs. John Folsom Sunday and Monday.

C. Dunn of Granby was a visitor in this place Monday.

Mrs. George Morrill and Miss Perry were visitors in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Among those who have been sick with the prevailing distemper the past two weeks are Mr. and Mrs. Bart Whitney, Mont. Fuller and son, Clinton, Mrs. John Fontin, Charles Miles, Mrs. George Gerry who had seemed to be recovering had a relapse and has been very sick the past two days. She is gaining now and sits up a short time each day. The last victim is Mrs. Ernest Barber, who is very sick at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barber have moved into the Cree house.

Henry Smith's fine pair of western horses are both sick with pneumonia.

Miss Beulah Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chamberlain, came to the family of Irving Taylor to assist with the work she had not been there but a few days when she was taken sick. Her father came and took her home. She became very ill, with grip and pneumonia and soon scarlet fever developed. It was impossible to get a doctor there. Our home doctor was ill in bed and could not go. They finally got Dr. Davis of Lyndonville to go up and see her, but she had been so long it was impossible to save her and she passed away last week Thursday noon, and was buried Saturday. As the family were under quarantine no funeral could be held, just a prayer in the yard. She was buried at Sheffield. This is a particularly sad case as Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain buried their only son who died at Lisbon, N. H., March 1, and now they are called upon to give up this young daughter, only 14 years old. Of a family of eight children, they have only two daughters living. Much sympathy is felt for his family.
